About Shaykh Atabek Shukurov

Shaykh Atabek Shukurov Nasafi began his religious studies at the tender age of ten. He studied under local scholars such as Shaykh Sayyid Karim Namangany and Shaykh Mohammed Jaan, under whose guidance he began to memorise the Qur'an.

University, Egypt. During this time his studies included: Sharh Ibn Aqeel with Shaykh Atiyya, Sharh Fiqh al-Akbar with Shaykh Adeeb Al-Kallas, Lubab fi Sharh Al-Kitab (also known as Quduri) with Shaykh Abdullah Rabiah, Aqeeda with Shaykh Saeed Ramadan al-Buti, Risala Qushariyyah with Shaykh Abdul Fatah Bism, Hadith with Shaykh Sadiq Darwish, Da'wa with Shaykh Tawfiq al-Buti. Shaykh Atabek completed his studies at the age of 21 in various subjects including Arabic Language, Hadith, Fiqh, Usul-ul-Fiqh, Qawa'id-ul-Fiqh, Tafsir and Tajweed at Madrasa Abul Qasim and Jamia Islamia in Uzbekistan. He graduated as a scholar but to further enrich his knowledge he moved to Syria. In 1998 he resided in the historic city of Damascus where he continued his studies with some of the finest scholars of our time. He enrolled in a four year Al-Ijaza Al-Alimiyya programme at the Takhassus Institute which is affiliated to Al-Azhar

Shaykh's zeal for learning extended beyond the programme at the Takhassus Institute and he Qatr Al-Nidah, Thufat Al-Mureed and Mukhtasar Al-Bukhari with Shaykh Rushdi Al-Qalam focussed his energies on intensive private lessons with Shaykh Muhammad Adnan Darwish and covered Fath Bab Al-Inaya and the Muwatta of Imam Malik. He also studied Shudhoor al-Dhab, Sharh

He graduated in 2003 after spending the final year at Al-Azhar University and was given certification by the Faculty of Theology and Philosophy. However Shaykh Atabek has never stopped the pursuit of knowledge and can claim more than 80 teachers from amongst the most illustrious of scholars of our time. The Shaykh went on to teach in prestigious universities across the Middle East before gracing these shores with his presence.

He is the founder of the Afifya Institute and Academy which seeks to promulgate authentic traditional Islamic teaching in Europe and is also affiliated with the Deen Institute which is an English apologetics and Dawah organisation. In 2012 he established with his students the well known Avicenna Academy which includes; primary, secondary schools as well as herbal and Islamic schools for adults.

Intriguingly, Sheikh Atabek is also a herbalist with a chain of teachers stretching back to none other than the iconic Ibn Sina.

Shaykh can be regularly seen on British Muslim TV, channel 835 in which he responds to viewer's questions. He is busy composing beneficial works such as the internet book 'Towards Understanding Hadith' in which he clarifies the misconceptions and misunderstandings of this time. Shaykh Atabek has supervised the translations of texts that he has himself taught namely The Initiation of Abu Laith As-Samarqandi and its commentary called the Commentary on the Initiation.

Introduction to the Course

Maturidi Institute is offering a once in a lifetime opportunity for those seeking to study on the classical Islamic Scholarship program which is designed to take the seeker from a Foundation level to an Advanced level in Islamic Scholarship. The program has 2 main options and these are either the module based learning or study on the basis of the 3 year advisory learning program. On the flexible module option you have the option of choosing the modules you want to study at your own pace. This also works for individuals who have previously studied certain texts / subjects and need to fill in 'gaps' their knowledge or simply for those that are not willing to go into the broad academia but only want to gain good level of awareness of specific subject.

On the 3 year advisory program if you have a zeal and thirst for knowledge you can also cover the 3 years in a shorter time depending on your own pace of learning. You will have control on the duration and amount of modules you want to take in a given time.

Students will enjoy learning the Islamic Sciences in a flexible program from the comfort of their homes, in any part of the globe. The 3 years / levels program is designed to produce the most learned and authentic classical Islamic Scholars in the world ready to face the academical and philosophical challenges of today. Thereafter, students will have the opportunity to specialize in their area of interest (eg: Hadith, Theology, Arabic etc). The sophisticated subjects in the specialist's program have been carefully selected to give a holistic and deep learning opportunity to the students. It is to further ones level so one can become a Grammarian or Theologian rather than just an Alim or Alima.

The scholarship program is unique as not only the learning of level 1 or year 1 modules are offered at zero cost but you can progress at our pace and choose what modules you would like to study. However please note to gain access to year / level 2 modules you will need to have completed and passed all year / lesson 1 modules.

The variety of modules are mainly taught by the famous eminent scholar: Shaykh Atabek Shukurov. This was mainly due to the demand of students wanting to study under the great Shaykh and achieve their Isnaad (Authentic certificate going through the teacher to the author of the text).

Overview of the Scholarship & Specialism Curriculum

When studying the unique, classical and knowledge-based curriculum of Maturidi Institute, the student will have the option of not only qualifying as an Alim/Alima (Islamic Scholar) but also specialising to become a specialist in one or more of the Islamic Sciences, depending on the students own zeal for knowledge.

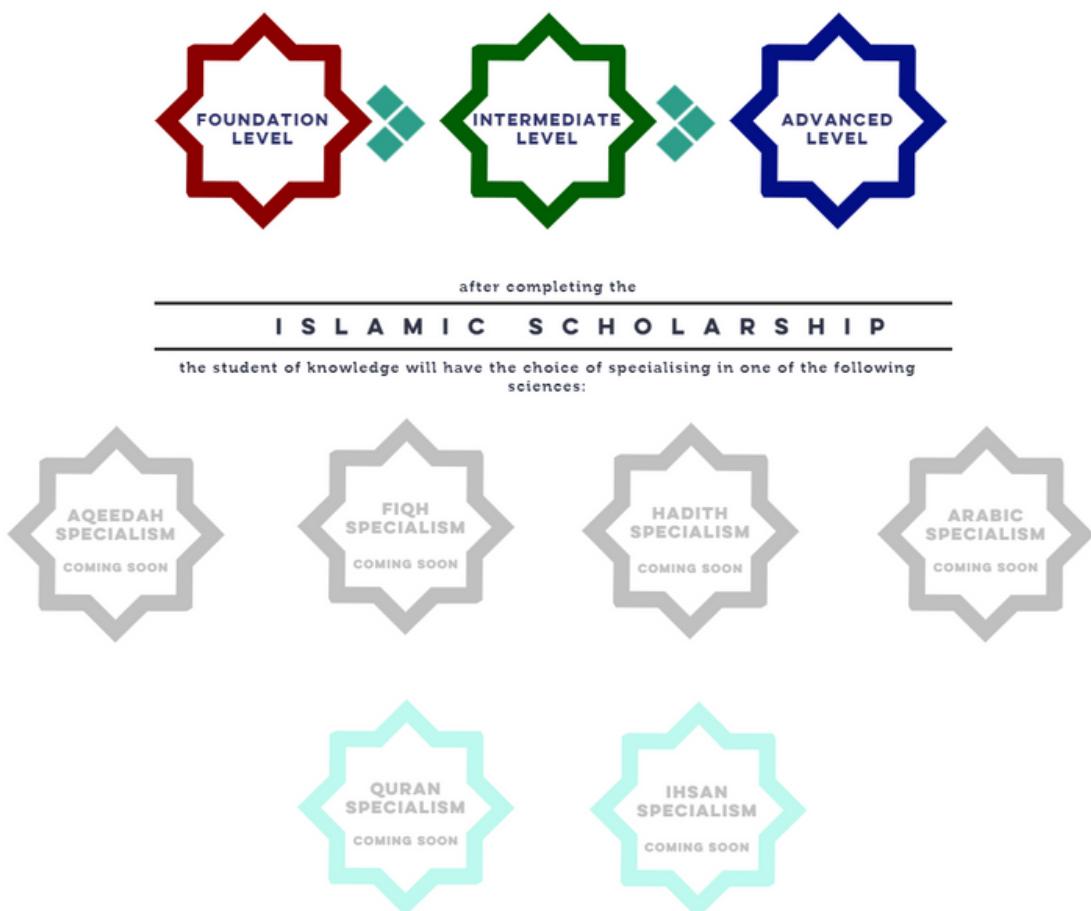

Unlike other institutions that will give you a certificate of completion once you have completed the entire 3 years, Maturidi Institute gives a certificate of completion for each module studied as well as a sanad (An Authentic Islamic Certificate) for most module texts studied. This means if the student decides to leave at any given year, with our "individual module certification" the student still leaves with authentic certification to take with them to any other institute of learning. The Scholarship and Specailisms program are as follows:

- 1. Year 1 (Foundation Level)
- 2. Year 2 (Intermediate Level)
- 3. Year 3 (Advanced Level)

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP

- 4. Year 4-5 Choose a Specialism: (Aqeedah, Fiqh, Hadith, Arabic, Quran, Ihsan).

Furthermore, if they decide to finish early and still want to teach, they can do this for the module/text they have been certified in.

Options of Study

This course was designed and thought of after considering the various feedback of Shaykh Atabek's previous students.

The college has considered the various feedback given by previous students to come up with study plans suitable for a wide range of people. Studying the Islamic Sciences has never been easier than this.

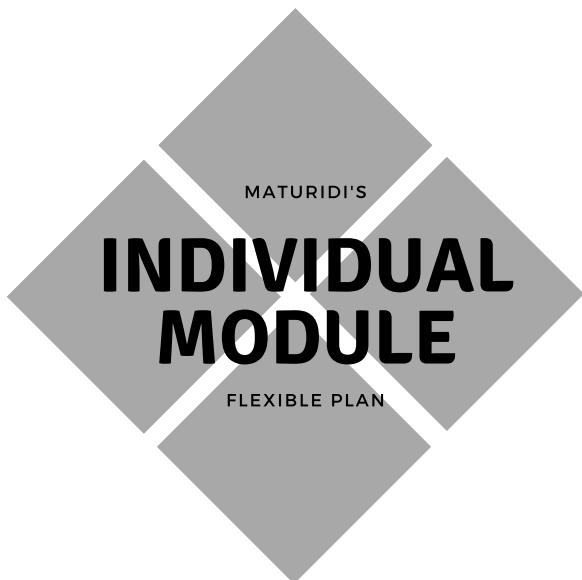

There are 2 main options of study you can sign up for:

1) 3 Year Full-Time program.

2) Individual modules

The 3 Year FT program is developed and designed by the Shaykh and his team. The Shaykh used his years of experience in teaching the Islamic Sciences, the types of students that usually sign up and the time it takes to study and digest the subjects. He then developed the 3 years program.

The Individual Modules is a flexible studying option, where the seeker has the full control on what he/she wants to study and under what time-frame. This was developed for those adults who are wanting to study but at their own pace. It is also designed for students of knowledge who have maybe studied some of the modules before with the Shaykh or others and want to get an Ijazah/Sanad (certificate) in the subject.

Advantages

- The overall Cost is cheaper than choosing the individual modules option.
- You will follows a tried and tested model supporting him to obtain scholarship in 3 years.
- You will be following a tried and tested program that is advised to study by the Shaykh.
- Obtain graduation at the same time as other students who have enrolled in the program.
- Each year you will get access to the Live lessons taught by Shaykh Atabek or the other teachers of Maturidi Institute.
- The restricted time-frame (year by year) will give you less freedom but more organisational and time management skills. As the program will push you to complete the modules within the year.

Disadvantages

- You have less flexibility on modules and timing of study.
- you will only be able to complete the modules in year 1 before you can move onto the modules in year 2.
- You will only have a academic year time-frame of when to study the modules in each year.
- You will have less flexibility on when and how quick or slow you want to study the modules

Advantages

- You will have more flexibilty on the modules. Choose to complete them faster or slower. It is entirely your choice.
- No limit on when you can complete the module once payment is made.
- You can delay the payment for Year 1 modules after you have watched the lectures and when you feel you are ready for the exam.
- You can potentially (depending on your own zeal) complete the year modules faster, reducing your time till qualification.

Disadvantages

- The cost per module works out more than choosing the 3-year plan.
- You will have to manage your own time and commitment to the module to complete it.

About: The study of Islam is incomplete without studying about the one who found and established it. Knowledge of the Prophetic Biography (Seerah) is necessary for every Muslim and sharing it with everyone is a responsibility. This subject is broken down into 3 modules. 1. Before Birth - Prophethood, 2. Prophethood - Migration to Madinah, 3. Migration to Madinah - Death.
- In this first module you will cover the Prophetic life from "Before Birth till Prophethood". The Shaykh covers Seerah in a unique style where he looks at the arguments from the orientalists and gives rational rebuttals to the points made on why RasoolAllah (saw) is a Messenger of God. You will also cover the various differences of opinion from the Maturidi and Ashari perspectives on certain matters of Seerah, such as the opinion held by Asharis that RasoolAllah (saw) became a Prophet at the age of 40, whereas the Maturidi opinion being that he was a Prophet before the creation of Adam (as).

About: Nahw is the name given to Arabic Grammar. It pertains to the study of knowing the rules and conditions that determine a words ending and how or when the endings of words change from a particular ending to another. This is an essential module as no student of Arabic can do without knowledge of Nahw. In year 2 the seeker will advance onto a higher level text in the subject of Nahw.

How will you be assessed?

In the Scholarship program each module will be assessed separately, regardless of its size or duration. This is because each module holds a certificate and/or Isnaad (Sanad) to the text studied. Once you complete the module(s) you have chosen then you will either be assessed by: 1.Exam or 2.Assignment need to take the exam or complete the assignment. All assignments and Exams are taken on the same day. If you turn to the calendar you will see the Exam Date and the Assignment due date.

Exams Assessment

You must take the exam on the prescribed days, as all exams are timed and sent out online with a restricted time limit on them. Once opened the exam will start and so will the timer so you need to make sure you are in an appropriate location, with no distractions so you can take this exam without hesitation.

Most modules in the 3 years will be assessed through a timed exam.

The Pass mark for most Exams will be 50% unless stated otherwise.

The Ijazah mark (mark required for a Sanad/Isnaad) for most exams will be 75% unless stated otherwise.

Assignment Assessment procedure

There are some modules that will be assessed through an academical assignment rather than an exam. This is done to test the student's knowledge and understanding as well as improve the students academic writing skills. Unfortunately, Muslims and Islamic Scholars today are not writing nearly enough on the analysis of religion and topics related to it. Alhamdulillah, we have many speakers and orators that will excite the audiences with emotional talks, but in the field of academia, we lack as an Ummah.

In Year 1 you are required to write 1 assignment of +1000 words and in Year 2; 2 assignments of similar word count. In Year 3 you will be required to submit a research paper of +5000 words that will be done on a topic of your choice related to an accumulation of the sciences and knowledge covered the 3 years.

For the requirements of each assignment visit the student portal or website for more info.

About Year 2 - Intermediate Level

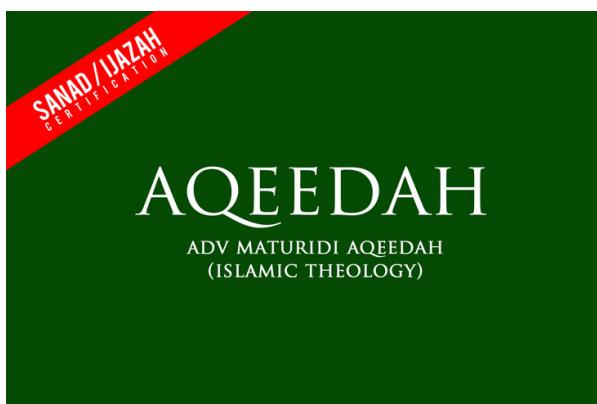

In this section, you will learn more about the individual modules that are being covered year two (Intermediate year of the Alimiyyah course). This will give you a better understanding of the various Islamic Sciences you will cover throughout the 3 years.

In Year Two there are 10 Intermediate modules. These are to be studied once you have completed the Modules in Year One. These will also need to be completed if you want to qualify to become an Alim/Alimah (Male/Female Scholar) or if you just want to know your Deen deeper.

Note: The Modules with an Islamic Sanad certification attached to it has a RED BANNER stating "SANAD / IJAZAH CERTIFICATION" on it. The Modules that are LIVE will have a WHITE BANNER stating they are "LIVE LESSONS". You must enrol onto these before the Course Enrolment Deadline if you want to watch them live. After each live session the lesson will be uploaded onto the portal for you to watch.

This difference in the methodology of the different schools of thought results in the difference between their theology and jurisprudence. It delves into the Hanafi methodology or principles of testing hadith, which is a methodology based on Quran and Logic. For centuries, in nearly all Hanafi institutes around the world, Shaf'i Mustalah has been taught instead of Hanafi Mustalah. This lecture explains why the science has been lost and disregarded. It is a revival of Hanafi Mustalah.

The personality of the Mahdi will be immense and beautiful. The Prophet once said to Ali (as) regarding the personality of the Mahdi 'The Mahdi is one of us, a member of my family. Allaah will guide him in a single night.'". But what does it mean to be guided in one night? And is it not that he will know he is the Mahdi? Many questions stem from one hadith. This is why hadith exegesis or analysis is important. The Shaykh (Atabek) will go over the 40 hadith transmitted in the book of Shaykh Abu Nuaym Al Asbahani and explain them using logic and theological arguments. He will relate issues in the world today and relate them to the prophesies mentioned about the Mahdi in Hadith.

About: The book covers the principles of Ihsan/ (also known as: Tasawwuf, Sufism, Islamic Mysticism, Inner dimensions of Islam). Written in 437/1045, Al-Qushayri's Epistle on Sufism has served as a primary textbook for many generations of Sufi novices down to the present. The book gives an illuminating insight into the everyday lives of Sufi devotees of the 8th-11th centuries C.E. and the moral and ethical dilemmas they were facing in trying to strike a delicate balance between their ascetic and mystical convictions and the exigencies of life in a society governed by rank, wealth, and military power.. In Al-Qushayri's Epistle on Sufism, these and many other Sufi motifs are illustrated by the anecdotes and parables that show al-Qushayri's fellow Sufis in a wide variety of contexts: suffering from hunger and thirst in the desert, performing pilgrimage to Mecca,

Course Text: Usul ash Shashi

Text Author: Shaykh Nizam Ad-Din Ash-Shashi (D. 800AH)

About: The word usul is the plural of the word asl (meaning 'principle'). In this regard, the usul is a framework of principles formulated in order to understand the rulings derived from the shari'ah for our everyday lives. This is because of the fact that not all specific rulings have been given in the Qur'an, nor have all secondary rulings been given in the hadith collections. Usul al-Shashi, was authored by either Nidham al Din ash-Shashi or Abu Ibrahim Ishaq ibn Ibrahim ash-Shashi, the exact author of which is not known. The word Shashi is one of tashdeed, meaning it is a denotation of the geographical location from which the author originates. This area of Shash is a region found in or around that of modern day Uzbekistan. The principles laid down in this book are only to be derived by the mustambiteen from amongst the ulama. These being individuals that have mastered the sciences through the correctness given to them by Allah, and derived from the following four sources:

About: The Qur'an is the most important Scripture in Islam, but at the same time it is one of the most misunderstood books. This is why we have placed it into the 3rd year of the Alimiyyah (Scholarship) program. One is advised to have a good ground knowledge in Arabic, Nahw, Sarf, Usul, Aqeedah and Fiqh before he/she decides to study the Tafseer of Qur'an. One can also study the tafseer of the Qur'an (this module) as a beginner if they are studying it for barakah and not make judgements or rulings from it. The Tafseer book taught (Tafseer Nasafi) is a Tafseer text not covered by many institutes, and is unique to Maturidi College. The Shaykh will go through this unique Tafseer and enlighten students on various interpretations of the verses being studied.

Certification / Isnaad (Sanad) & Ijazah

What is a Sanad?

Sanad and Isnād /Isnaad (Arabic: سند أو إسناد) is a traditional method of certification used in Islam throughout our 1400+ years of history. We have had this system of certification that pre-dates many of the certifying systems in the world today. This ancient method uses a unique method of Isnaad (Chain) where the learner can trace their educational lineage back to the author of the book. For example, a Sanad for the Quran would be when a reciter or Hafiz (Memoriser) of the Quran gives a 'chain' of authenticated narrators, each mentioned the one from whom he learnt the Qur'an and authorized him to teach it, till mentioning the prophet Muhammad.

A Sanad could be either verbatim (passed by memorising the sanad and passing it down through speech) or it could be in a written format (teacher passes on a parchment or certificate that contains the names in the sanad). Most recently, it is formerly written as a list or Shajarah (Lineage Tree) and then once the seeker has qualified in the respective field it is then given by the teacher who has taught the individual. This parchment will have the name of the seeker, the signature of the teacher and the names of all the predecessor teachers throughout history who have followed this same method till present. Many people narrate this chain or a part of this chain when they are narrating a Hadith. For example, you will find in a hadith collection of Muwatta where it may state "Imam Malik, heard from Nafi, who heard from Ibn Umar, who heard from Umar, who heard the Prophet (saw) say....". This is an example of a sanad or chain of transmission in a hadith going back to the Prophet (saw). Similarly when you achieve a sanad from the Shaykh for the module texts you will study, the sanad will go back to the author of the text.

This will authenticate you according to Islamic Tradition, that you have studied, understood, assessed, certified and given ijazah (permission) to teach and narrate the text further.

Who is eligible to receive a Sanad?

The sanad system traditionally has been passed on from teacher to student, regardless if the student is male or female. Meaning both males and females are eligible for a sanad. However, in terms of age we say the person must be mature enough to understand the science or text being taught. To make it easier to assess we say he/she should be at least 16+ years, however, this is a guide age and each person will have a different level of intelligence and maturity.

Who is eligible to receive a Sanad?

Receiving a Sanad is just like any other process of receiving a certificate, however, in Islam there are a few things you must consider or have advised to make sure the authenticity of Islam or the book studied remains as pure as possible.

1. Firstly, Just like many of the principles of religion, you should first make a pure intention that you are wanting to receive this sanad for the sake of Allah and his religion.
2. Secondly, you should question yourself and be sure you are certain you understand the text being studied well enough to pass it on as a teacher of the text. Make sure to read over the notes and revise before the exam so you are ready.
3. Then you will take the exam (pass mark with ijazah is usually 75%)
4. If you pass the exam (50%) you will receive a certificate only. If you pass with Ijazah (usually 75% unless stated otherwise), you will receive an Isnaad/Sanad to the book.

5. You may choose to receive the Sanad straight away or you can delay it so you can receive the Sanad from the blessed hands of the Shaykh at a later date (this may be at a graduating ceremony)

6. Be aware! When you receive a sanad you automatically agree to a spiritual contract of trust that you make with the teacher and author of the text (regardless if they are living or have passed away). You agree to pass on or teach the text without adding or deleting anything from it. Remember though, Islam is a religion that promotes tolerance and open-mindedness, so when teaching you may give your own or another's opinion on a matter, however, you are advised to state: "this is my opinion" or "this is not the opinion of the author" or "this is the opinion of...." or the likes thereof.

If you decide to pursue this path of knowledge, then we wish you all the very best in obtaining your Isnaad certifications. This is a huge responsibility of the ummah so may Allah preserve you for preserving the Islamic Sciences for the benefit of the Ummah. Ameen!

"Many find only a mirage, when seeking water. Many attain mere copper whilst seeking gold. Many find only glass on their quest for diamonds. So know that the best route for the destination is the route which has been tested and experienced by authentic guides for thousands of years. We follow and teach the traditional way of classical Islam, following in the footsteps of giants of sacred knowledge."

Maturidi family is a group of intellectuals from all over the world who are trying to connect the efforts of the thinkers of the past with the scholars of the present to produce a beneficial fruits for the researchers of the future. We believe that the technical language which was used by the classical scholars of the past made their works not accessible for the layman who is looking for answers for his theological and philosophical questions. Our aim is to translate their work in to the language which can be understood by ordinary seekers, so that everyone can benefit from very wealthy heritage. In order to make this happen Maturidi Institute has created a panel of top scholars and academics from all over the world who are coming from different faiths and backgrounds.

Theology never meant to cause frictions and problems in the life of humanity. There were many great theologians and philosophers in the past who tried their best to find an answer to the questions which bothered the humanity for centuries. The names of some of these theologians could be known but their works and fruits of their research may not be as known. Maturidi Institute tries its best to revive these works and put them under the spotlight, hoping it will benefit the humanity in the contemporary life when many people are looking for answers but only few are finding it."
